Request to Appeal Loss of Financial Aid Eligibility Due to Academic Progress

Students who lose eligibility for financial aid due to not meeting satisfactory academic progress (SAP) standards, may appeal the decision. Appeals must be submitted to the Office of Financial Aid within two weeks of notification of the loss of eligibility. In order for an appeal to be considered, it must be signed by the student and include the following:

- Appeal of Financial Aid Eligibility
- Personal Academic Plan available through the Dean of Advising and Co-Curricular Program website
- Explanation of any extenuating circumstances

Appeals may be granted based on the extenuating circumstances, supporting documentation, level of deficiency and feasibility of the proposed academic plan. Students are required to consult with their class dean as they design their academic plan. Appeals will be reviewed by the Appeals Committee in a timely manner. Notification of the appeal decision will be communicated to you via your Lafayette email. If the appeal is granted, any conditions that apply will be clearly noted in the email.

I wish to appeal my loss of eligibility for financial aid due to insufficient academic progress. I have enclosed the required documents and have consulted with my class dean regarding my academic plan.
